The Noun Clause

Chapter 6 & Verb Review / Practice

Noun Phrase

What is it?
- Pronoun or Noun with its modifiers

What does it do?
- Subject of a Verb

Mrs. Coleman explains noun phrases.

She explains noun phrases.

Noun Phrase

What does it do?
- Object of a Verb

Mrs. Coleman explains noun phrases.

She explains noun phrases.

Noun Phrase

What does it do?
- Complement of a Linking Verb

Mrs. Coleman is my ESL 165 teacher

Noun Phrase

What does it do?
- Object of a Preposition

Mrs. Coleman explains to the class the function of noun phrases

Noun Phrase

Identify all the Noun Phrases

Mrs. Coleman explains to the class the function of noun phrases
Noun Clause pg 118

What is it?

Subordinating Word, Noun and Verb

What does it do?

- Subject of a Verb

  What Billy did shocked his friends.

- Object of a Verb

  Billy's friends didn't know that he couldn't swim.

- Subject Complement

  Billy's mistake was that he refused to take lessons.

- Object of a Preposition

  Mary is not responsible for what Billy did.

- Adjective Complement

  Everybody is sad that Billy drowned.

- Appositive

  The idea that I would get the job made me happy.
NC Subordinating Words pg 118

- That
- What
- How / How Much
- When
- Whether / If
- Where
- Why

Your Turn: Identify the Noun Clause and the Function

1. That George learned how to swim is a miracle.

Your Turn: Identify the Noun Clause and the Function

2. We didn’t know that Billy would jump.

Your Turn: Identify the Noun Clause and the Function

3. He wants to learn about whatever is interesting.

Your Turn: Identify the Noun Clause and the Function

4. The truth is Billy was not very smart.

Your Turn: Identify the Noun Clause and the Function

5. Whether Fred can get a better job is not certain.
6. Billy didn’t listen to what Mary said.

7. What Mary said confused her parents.

8. The question is whether other boys will try the same thing.

9. However you learn to spell is OK with me.

10. The winner will be whoever runs fastest.

11. A belief that homework is important helps students succeed in college.
12. I don’t know where he is.

13. I want to know about what he thinks.

14. He is happy he is learning English.

15. The truth is Billy was not very smart.

16. We are all afraid that the final exam will be difficult.

17. Whatever is on his plate is what George eats.
18. Can you tell me if Fred is here?

19. Why he wants to go is beyond me.

Complete the sentences:

1. Who knew that …

2. It is a fact that …

3. … is the truth.

4. I would like to know who…
Complete the sentences:
5. I will give it to …

Complete the sentences:
6. I was walking down the street when …

Complete the sentences:
7. She has been …

Complete the sentences:
8. Jeff will have been teaching for 7 years when …

Complete the sentences:
9. Yesterday the boys …

Complete the sentences:
10. What he is doing …
Complete the sentences:
11. ... when the students were taking the test.

Complete the sentences:
12. ... how much it costs?

Complete the sentences:
13. They had driven to school...

Complete the sentences:
14. She will be going to the bank...

Complete the sentences:
15. It is true....

Homework
- Read Chicken Soup “The Good, the Bad” 76-77
- Finish Chapter 6
- Sentences Due Thursday