ATTENTION: STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF, ADMINISTRATORS!

HONORS EXCURSION!

Join the honors Spanish 185 class on Thursday, May 7th as we head over to UC Irvine... and into the future!

Cosecha Latina/Latin Harvest is proud to present “Sleep Dealer”, winner of the Amnesty International Film Prize at the 2008 Berlin International Film Festival, and two awards at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival. “Building on the director’s past experiments with digital animation, this feature-length sci fi narrative takes us into the not-so-distant Mexican future, in which the world is divided by closed borders, yet linked together by a digital network that connects people around the world.” (Cosecha Latina site). The film is in Spanish with subtitles.

The film will be screened on Thursday, May 7, at 7:00pm; there will be a reception at 6:30, and the director, Alex Rivera, will be on hand afterward for a Q&A session. The cost is $3.00. We’ve arranged for a bus, which will leave OCC for UC Irvine at 6:00pm and return between 9:30 and 10:00pm.

If you’re interested in joining us, please:

(1) E-mail Honors Program Coordinator Denise Cabanel-Bleuer (dcabanel@occ.cccd.edu) by Monday, May 4th, to assure yourself a spot on the bus (first come, first served); if you’d like to bring guests, please indicate how many. Also, if the $3.00 admission will create a hardship for you, please indicate this in your e-mail. In her response, Denise will send you information about where to meet the bus.

(2) Print and complete the attached waiver form (see also link below) If you bring guests, each will need to complete a form, as well. Bring the completed waiver with you to the bus.

CONTACT AND LINKS
For more information about the event, contact Denise Cabanel-Bleuer: dcabanel@occ.cccd.edu or Terry Scarbrough in the Academic Honors Office (hpro@occ.cccd.edu / 714.432.5601)
Cosecha Latina/Latin Harvest site: http://www.humanities.uci.edu/fvc/sched09_04_latin-harvest.html